ICA - Applying for Singapore Permanent Residence (PR)

AGENCY: Immigration & Checkpoints Authority (ICA)
CATEGORY: Residency
TOPIC: Apply for Permanent Residence
SOURCE_URL: https://www.ica.gov.sg/reside/PR/apply
LAST_VERIFIED: 2026-10-28

Eligibility - you may be eligible if you are one of the following:
- A spouse of a Singapore citizen or permanent resident (PR)
- An unmarried child under 21 of a Singapore citizen or PR, through a legal marriage or legal adoption
- An aged parent of a Singapore citizen aged 21 or older
- A holder of an Employment Pass or S Pass
- A student in Singapore who has passed at least one national exam, or is in the Integrated Programme (IP)
- A foreign investor (check the EDB website for the Global Investor Programme)

How to apply: through ICA e-Service. Applicants generally need Singpass. A spouse sponsor logs in to ICA e-Service with Singpass to sponsor the application. Students under 15 can use the non-Singpass option.

Fees (non-refundable, paid online):
- S$100 per application, at submission
- On completion of formalities: S$20 Entry Permit, S$50 5-year Re-Entry Permit, S$50 Singapore Identity Card

Processing time: applications are processed within 6 months if all required documents are submitted and in order. Some may take longer.

Official source: https://www.ica.gov.sg/reside/PR/apply